

Job description:

Lean specialist is responsible to identify and improve the outcomes of manufacturing and operational processes to improve efficiencies, reduce cost and increase customer satisfaction.

Responsibilities:

- Promote a performance mindset at all site levels through Lean events, standardization and simplification initiative;
- Evaluates all continuous improvement activities and implements plans to optimize performance and processes;
- Interface with project managers on projects addressing staffing, manpower, time and capacity issues;
- Provide Lean training at all levels of the Plant.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree (Engineering, Chemistry, Pharmacy);
- 1 to 3 years experience in production environment in implementing LEAN tools, projects, and programs with a proven track record of success (5S, KAIZEN, SMED, VSM/VSD, Visual management);
- Knowledge of project management methodology;
- Proficient in the areas of process and root cause analyses;
- Experience working with all levels of management;
- Good knowledge of MS Office (Excel proficiency);
- English – advanced level.

If you are interested please apply at iuliana.petre@zentiva.com.